Restaurant Server

Job Description

Restaurant Server

You like making people smile, have a welcoming nature and like a fast paced work environment. Serving is in your blood and seeing people eat a good meal makes you happy. As the Restaurant Server you will:

- Be a Friendly Face - arriving at work on time to get the restaurant/lounge/cafe set up and ready to open, keeping the area clean and attractive throughout the meal period. As the outlet closes, all cleaning duties -- floors, tables, buffet as well as sidework duties. - are also part of your role.
- Be a Host as well as a Server -- pouring water, upselling food & beverage, making helpful suggestions, answering questions, remembering names or favorite choices, offering a friendly smile -- and maybe even a weather forecast or a local attraction suggestion -- is all part of the job.
- Be a Food Professional -- understand the food and beverage you are serving so you know what you are speaking about; offer prompt, excellent service to create a wonderful dining experience for the guest; handle cash/credit accurately and timely.
- Be a Safety & Security Agent -- follow your hotel's established safety and security policies & procedures. Anticipate problems and call management as needed.
